Attach proof of citizenship or resident status such as birth certificate, U.S. passport, Board of Elections registration card, or USCIS document. (Driver's license or Social Security card will not be acceptable.)

Submit a brief 1- or 2-page resume with educational background, professional activities (commissions, performances, awards, etc.), and works list. Include a short description of the creative work you hope to accomplish while in residence at Copland House. What will this project mean to your career?

Titles, dates, and timings of your three representative works that accompany this application:

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

Submit 3 recordings. Recordings of these three works are highly desirable; if any are unavailable, recordings of other works should be substituted. Only compact disc recordings will be accepted. Both the disc and the CD case should be clearly labeled with the composer's name and works' titles, and, if applicable, tracking and listing of movements or sections. Please indicate the numbers of those scores for which recordings are enclosed.
